

GYNECOLOGY AND OBSTETRICS (GYOB)

Courses

GYOB 701. Gynecology and Obstetrics Clerkship. 1.5-9 Units.

Addresses normal and high-risk obstetrics and gynecology, women's health, reproduction, birth control, gynecological cancers, and gynecological pathology in a clinical setting. Includes examinations, diagnoses, procedures, deliveries, and surgeries.

GYOB 891. Gynecology and Obstetrics Elective. 1.5-27 Units.

Offers fourth-year medical students the opportunity to explore various areas of gynecology and obstetrics, such as benign gynecology, high-risk obstetrics, lactation, oncology, research, etc.